ANNOUNCEMENTS

FAMILY MOVIE NIGHT

We are having a Family Movie Night on Friday 22nd August here at the church building. At 6pm we will show a short G-rated animated movie called "The Gruffalo" for the younger kids. At 7pm we're showing an animated faith-based movie called "King of Kings". Charles Dickens, narrates Jesus' life story to his young son, Walter. The movie follows Jesus' birth, ministry, crucifixion, and resurrection, with Walter's imagination transporting him into the biblical events. It's a PG movie for the older kids, (and parent or carers can go watch the official trailer online too so you can determine if that's suitable for your kids.) Bring your own dinner or bring some takeaway, bring some snacks. Bring a beanbag and a blanket. Bring the whole family for a great night of fellowship. There will also be free popcorn!
